"For behold, this life is the time for men to prepare to meet God; yea, behold
the day of this life is the day for men to perform their labors."

Selective Service changes keep it marching along in step

DEAR ABBY: Your fans have recently pointed out the advantages and disadvantages of bachelorhood. In a response to "Proud Bachelor," you said, "And let's not forget that bachelorhood has its privileges. In time of war, they get to go first."

Although this was true at one time, it is no longer true. The Selective Service System has also changed with the times in an effort to deliver manpower needed by the Department of Defense in an emergency in the time required, and to do so with equity. We believe we have accomplished this.

Prior to the reforms of the early '70s, there were many inequities — student, occupational, paternity deferments. All these have been eliminated. In a future emergency, who would go will be determined by random selection based upon birthdate.

The Selective Service also instituted other changes to assure a fair and just system of selection. The changes include board members who are trained and representative of the public they serve, and an organized alternative service for conscientious objectors.

Peacetime registration has made it possible to mobilize our manpower in an emergency at least six weeks faster than if registration did not exist. Since the president reinstituted Selective Service registration in 1980, over 15.3 million young men, or over 99 percent of our draft-eligible population, have registered.

So, Abby, whether a man is married or not doesn't matter. Each one of the 15.3 million men who has made that trip to the post office to register with Selective Service deserves our thanks.

— THOMAS K. TURNAGE, DIRECTOR, SELECTIVE SERVICE SYSTEM, WASHINGTON, D.C.

DEAR MR. TURNAGE: And you have my thanks for the update as well as the information concerning the changes in the Selective Service system.

I found especially informative the reasons for deferments, postponements and exemptions. I am sharing them with my readers:

— CONSCIENTIOUS OBJECTORS

perform service to the nation in a manner consistent with their moral, ethical or religious opposition to participation in war in any form. Depending upon the nature of his beliefs, a conscientious objector serves either in a non-combatant capacity in the armed forces or in a civilian job contributing to the national interest.

— MINISTERS may be exempted from service.

— MINISTERIAL STUDENTS are deferred from service until they complete their studies.

— SURVIVING SONS OR BROTHERS in a family where the father, mother, brother or sister died as a result of U.S. military service, or is in a captured or missing in action status, are exempt from service in peacetime.

— HARDSHIP deferments are available for men whose induction would result in hardship to persons who depend upon them for support.

— MEMBERS OF RESERVE COMPONENTS (including the National Guard and advanced-level ROTC cadets who have already signed a Reserve contract) are eligible for a separate classification and perform their military service in the National Guard or the Reserves.

— CERTAIN ELECTED OFFICIALS are exempt from service as long as they continue to hold office.

— VETERANS generally are exempt from service in peacetime.

— If an alien served at least 12 months in the armed forces of a country with which the United States is involved in mutual defense activities, he is eligible for the same classification as a man who has completed U.S. military service.

— Dual nationals may be exempted from U.S. military service if their other country of nationality has a treaty or agreement with the United States providing for such an exemption.

DEAR ABBY: What would you have done if you were served a drink with lipstick on the rim of the glass? This took place at the home of an acquaintance, not a close friend. — DIFFICULT DILEMMA

DEAR DIFFICULT: I belong to the "do-unto-others" school. Were I the hostess and a guest was served a drink with lipstick on the glass, I would appreciate having it called to my attention.
